

Overview

ALIMET® feed supplement is very cost effective and provides many additional benefits beyond methionine:

- HMTBa has 100% equivalency to DL-methionine.
- Optimized performance during stress and high growth demands.
- Liquid form means better blending and handling characteristics.
- Benefits of acidification.

Product Description

ALIMET is an 88% effective source of methionine activity in livestock. In addition to proven performance, ALIMET has benefits beyond methionine.
